

The New York County Medical Society
Invites Members and Their Office Staff to:

A Practice Challenges Double-Header!
The Third-Party Insurer Audit & Refund Process
plus
Physicians' Rights in New York State

With
James McNally, CPC, Healthcare Consultant

Wednesday, May 28, 2008, 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.
Corwin Hall at Manhattan Eye, Ear & Throat Hospital
210 East 64 Street, New York City

You face challenges from audits by Medicare and managed care organizations, but you can proactively respond to these audits to protect your practice. You face challenges from managed care contract problems, slow (or under-, or non-) payment, services denied, and many other managed care issues, but you can make use of important protections included in the New York State Insurance and Public Health Law. In this great “double-header” session, you’ll learn:

- * What to watch for in the Medicare audit process
- * How to respond to a Medicare audit
- * What participating in a managed care plan network really means
- * What to watch for in physician contracts
- * What to do about contract termination and contract nonrenewal
- * What your rights are regarding prompt payment
- * What your rights are regarding external appeals
- * And much more!

SEATS ARE LIMITED, so be sure to sign up early! Admission is free. Please e-mail ljoseph@nycms.org, call Lisa Joseph at 212-684-4670 (ext. 222), or fax this form to Lisa at fax number 212-684-4741.
